

Crowley Lake Prepared for Annual 'Fish Parade' Fete

It's official now! The California State Fish and Game Commission has officially set Saturday, April 30, as the kickoff date for the 1955 "big fish parade" at Crowley Lake, the famous "lair of the tackle busters" in the Eastern High Sierra, it was reported Friday by the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Department.

According to the Recreation and Park Department, the Fish and Game Commission also legalized the use of native minnows ("chubs") at Crowley Lake; outlawed "chumming"; and opened Crowley's tributary streams to angling from Hwy. 385 eastward to the huge man-made reservoir.

Crowley Manager George Marks emphasized that the Fish and Game Commission took no action on a proposal to move the "no fishing" restraining line at Crowley's south end. The boundary will remain 2500 feet from the dam.

Spotlighting another important date for Southland Laak Waltons, Recreation and Park Department Office Manager Charles S. McCormick Jr. reported that his staff is in fine fettle for its most exciting event of the year — the assignment of opening-week-end reservations for rental of the city's fleet of Crowley Lake inboard motorboats and rowboats.

Doors to Room 225, City Hall, will open promptly at 8 a.m. Monday, March 28, and the available supply of Crowley-craft opening-week-end reservations will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis to those pointing out that those in the March 28 line can also make boat reservations for post-opening-week-end dates, McCormick predicted that eager anglers will initiate the formation at approximately 12 noon Sunday, March 27.

The Warriors will also send their top men to the West Coast Relays, Fresno, City College and Harbor Junior College at El Camino and on April 15 the Warriors host Bakersfield and East Los Angeles Junior College; and the Southern California Relays at Santa Ana.

Tartar Nine Seeks Fourth Win

(Herald Photo)
ABOUT THAT TIME . . . This shot of 1954 Torrance Little League action will be duplicated soon, when area youngsters launch their own baseball season in May. Right now, new diamonds are being constructed in Torrance for three Little Leagues, a Babe Ruth and a Pony League, and also in North Torrance, where Little League will make its bow in 1955.

Rain Ruins Scheduled Track Meet at Samohi

Even Santa Monica High's fine track facilities couldn't withstand the surge of rain last Thursday so the scheduled triangular spike meet between the Vikes, Burroughs High and Torrance was canceled.

Tartar Coach Willard Morgan and Don Porter were informed early Friday that the Vikes track was being hit by a heavy rain and the field looked too slippery to stage the affair. No attempt was made to re-schedule the three-way meet, as none of the schools have any free dates left on their spring calendar.

Transfer of the meet to Torrance was out of the question as the local track was a quagmire following Thursday's rain.

The local preppers next meet Redondo's Seahawks, Friday in a dual meet at Redondo. First event is slated for 2:45 p.m.

TORRANCE, MT. CARMEL MEET TOMORROW

Torrance's Tartar baseball Varsity primed themselves for another win Thursday, but the only winner was the weather as it stopped the scheduled tilt between the Tartars and El Segundo.

Del Nuzum, Torrance coach, tried to re-schedule the game for Torrance on Friday, but rain took care of that proposal too. The Tartars tripped up the El Segundo nine, 9-4, in their first game of the season.

Tomorrow, the locals meet Mt. Carmel at 3 p.m. at Mt. Carmel. Wednesday, they tackle Morningside's Varsity at Torrance Park. Game time is set for 3 p.m.

The Varsity will engage Morningside High again, and the UCLA Frosh nine before tackling Centennial in their first Bay League tilt, here on March 24.

So far, Torrance has swept all opposition aside during the early horseshoe season in gathering three straight wins. After the El Segundo game, the Tartars edged Serra's Cardinals, 2-1, and rolled over Culver City, 6-3.

Tom Miller has seen most of the Tartar pitching for Nuzum's nine. He picked up the win in the Tartars' first game.

Gary Hakanson and Ron Anderson are the other two Tartar moundsmen. Nuzum is very high on Anderson, who hurled the close 2-1 win over Serra two weeks ago. A junior, the right-handed Anderson stands 6' 3" and has a good fast ball that keeps opposing hitters loose at the plate.

Bob Boss and Bob Hanks have been the Tartar hit bats. Boss supplying the power and Hanks being the most consistent threat at the plate.

Festivities will get under way at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Coach George Stanich will be in charge of awards. Letters will be given to members of the Tartar Varsity, JV, Bee and Cee teams.

Dennis Hester and Mike Sampson posted a Torrance High's victory as Torrance High's golfers defeated Leuzinger in a practice tournament at Palos Verdes Country Club.

The locals meet Morningside High's linksmen today at the Inglewood Country Club in another practice match.

The Tartars' six-man team posted a 288 score, to 317 for the Olymians.

Hester and Sampson had 45, Ronnie Hays and Steve Crowell had 47, Jerry Thrall had a 49 and Jerry Kupka shot a 53 to make up the Torrance scoring.

JV's Notch Third Win In MC Rout

Herm Cobrea and Mike Hanon combined pitching talents Wednesday to limit the Mira Costa JV's to three hits in pacing the Torrance juniors to an 11-0 victory.

It was the third win in as many starts for George Stanich's Tartar JV's. The squad also holds early-season wins over Serra, 4-0, and Culver City, 6-2.

Stanich used 19 men in the massacre, with center fielder Frank Johnson leading the hitters with two hits in four trips to the plate. Johnson singled in the first frame and drove a long triple in the fourth inning to top all hitters.

Cobrea picked up the win. The Jayvees take to the field again tomorrow when they run up against the Mt. Carmel nine at Torrance. Wednesday, the locals meet Morningside at Morningside.

Warrior Racketeers Start Play

Tennis will share the sports spotlight at El Camino college when Norm Verry and his racket squad try to outclass East Los Angeles JC in the Metropolitan conference opener tomorrow on the Huskie's court.

With three lettermen returning from last year's squad, Coach Verry has hopes for a successful season.

"Having Stan Ellis and Bill Lewis, probably one of the better junior doubles combinations in the Metro league, I believe we have a fair chance of winning the crown," Verry commented.

Ellis was ranked number 12 in the nation last year in the junior division, while Lewis, number one man on last year's squad, finished third in the conference tournament held at Long Beach.

Rounding out the squad are Robert Hess, Lee Adams, Donald Stuard and Clarence Kado.

Bob Weiss Honored by Metro Loop

Star forward Bob Weiss was the only El Camino College player to receive mention when the Metropolitan Conference listed its 1954-55 All-League team last week.

Weiss, who averaged 14 points per game for the last place Warriors, was given honorable mention by the selection committee.

Named to the All-Conference first team were Willie Pitts, San Diego, and Jim Newman Harbor, forwards; Len Brown Bakersfield, center; and Jim Halsten Valley Junior College, and Ed Holliday, Bakersfield, guards.

Jack Ellena to Speak at Little League Meeting on Wednesday

Jack Ellena, UCLA's All-American grid tackle and brand new member of the Los Angeles Rams professional football club, will be the featured speaker at a meeting presented by the Pacific Coast Little League Association on Wednesday.

The gathering will be held at 24456 Madison St., Torrance and will be free of charge to the public. It will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Albert Marzilli, president of the Pacific Coast Little League, announced that Ellena will speak on the character building aspects of sports and the need of clean living in a young athlete's development.

Baseball Films
"Democracy of Baseball" and "Batting Stars," a pair of baseball movies, provided through courtesy of the Los Angeles Angels, will be shown at the meeting also.

In announcing the program, Marzilli said: "Our community is fortunate in having one of America's grid stars speak to our aspiring athletes, their families and friends."

"Ellena's selection on virtually every All-American team and his excellent sportsmanship and attitude on the field, well qualify him to speak to our young people," he concluded.

Lineman of Year
Ellena was named Lineman of the Year by United Press and the U.P. Associated Press and Collier's All-American teams.

He will relate some of the more interesting highlights of the Bruin football campaign during his talk. UCLA was named last month as the top collegiate football eleven in the nation for 1954.

Little League officials urge all interested persons to attend. They point out that the event should be well received by all family members and sports enthusiasts.

BENNETT'S 265 IS BEST GAME
Gil Bennett and Gloria Vaughan came through with the top bowling efforts during February at the Torrance Bowl.

Bennett had the "Game of the Month" among men leggers by virtue of his booming 265 mark recently.

Gloria topped all individual scores among women in February with a 203 game.

TRY OUTS SLATED

Registration and tryouts for the Pacific Coast Little League season will be held Saturday, March 26, at WALTERIA Park.

The tryouts, geared to select team members for the eight teams in the loop, will begin at 10 a.m.

The league opens regular play in May.

LOCAL 1135 TOPS ALLEN'S BURGER FIVE

Cityworkers' Local 1135 upset Allen's Burgers squad last Tuesday, 62-50, to tie the Burger team for the 1955 championship of the Torrance City League.

The two teams will square off tonight at the Torrance High School gym in a playoff tilt to decide the title. Game time is 8 p.m.

Local 1135 enjoyed an 11-point half-time lead, due much to the fine shooting of Center Paul Smith. Smith totaled

Burger Five to Tourney

Allen's Burgers cage squad will represent Torrance in the Southern California Churn plowship Tournament, slated March 19-20, and 26-27 in San Fernando.

Herb Allen, sponsor of the team, and Elmer "Red" Moon, City Recreation Director, made the announcement this week.

20 points when the game was over to lead his team to the win.

Allen's Furniture team swept by Knoll's Drug five, 49-39, in another league tilt.

Forward Jim Halle hit for 14 points to lead the winners' attack. Bill Sommers of Knoll's had 15 for game honors.

Darl Mead scored 10 points from his guard spot to lead Treske's Men's Shop to a 88-10 shellacking of the Blue Devils in the final game.
